

The image shows a sheet music cover. The title "Grand Serenade" is written in large, bold, black serif capital letters. Below it, the subtitle "for Clarinet, Violoncello and Piano" is also in black serif font. A large, stylized word "Cello" is centered below the subtitle. At the bottom, the name "Bill Robinson" is written in a large, bold, black sans-serif font. The background of the cover is white, but it features a repeating watermark pattern of the word "Rām" in a smaller black font, which is a common placeholder for lyrics in musical scores.
